INGERSOLL & WYLAND, Publishers.
BRainerd, MINN.

GENERAL BEAUBIARD is now 75 years of age, but is quite active and still maintains his old-time military bearing.

The sons of the Emperor of Germany will visit England shortly and will have to be very good boys while they are staying with their great-grandmother, the Queen, who likes children "to be seen, not heard."

The Postmaster at Ogden, Utah, is General Nathan Kimball whose friends claim that he was a hero and central figure of the battle of Winchester.

Now it is said that the protocol between France and Chili is likely to stir up a rumormongering in Peru. There should be a law passed in South America prohibiting carrying the protocol in the state limits.

As an instance of the interest taken in cricket in England more than 31,000 people paid their way into Kennington Oval to see the recent match between the Surrey and Nottly elevens.

PAPER manufacture is one of the chief industries in Korea. The paper is made in the most primitive manner from the bark of a tree which is indigenous to the country and which is closely allied to the mulberry.

The artists of Philadelphia are in a quandary as to how to bring the studies into one neighborhood, with the view to the establishment of a Latin quarter such as Paris once had but has no longer.

J. E. MINOR, who was the Assistant Treasurer for the Confederacy, has a neat little $500,000 bundle of Confederate notes laid away for the waste basket of the future.

The gentlemen who overhauled Messrs. Harrison and Cleveland the other day with the news of their nomination for president will themselves be electrified before long by receiving trustworthy information that the nominees have accepted.

VICTORIA'S maids of honor, who are paid $1,500 a year for their services, earn their salaries. They are obliged to appear before the queen in a new gown every day and to be in readiness to attend her majesty at any and every hour of the day.

MAYBE the reason that little Mary has double canals of great width, where one would be an elegant sufficiency, lies in the fact that they have politics over there and put large numbers of floaters at work on public improvements about election time.

A SMALL island in Passamaquoddy bay is inhabited only by one man and his family. It is said that the man has several wives, and he certainly has a surprising number of children. They live by fishing and farming, and although the father and husband doesn't own the island he keeps there.

MRS. HETTY GREEN'S father was a New Bedford man who accumulated $9,000,000 in the whale oil trade of that city. This fortune came down to Mrs. Green, who has now more than $1,000,000 in the same trade.

QUEEN VICTORIA is met on the road by a crank who informs her that he had sworn to order the execution of the man who had taken a lady back to that drowsy and oleaginous old city.

MONTANA is on the point of choosing a permanent capital. Helena and its rivals will probably indulge in an interesting contest for State House honors, but they will hardly edge Guthrie, Oklahoma City and Kingfisher, the three Oklahoma hamlets that fought a bloody fight for the Territorial capital two or three years ago.

It is said that the Duke of Devonshire, who has just been married to the "Duchess of Manchester," was nearly in love with her 40 years ago, when he had "mild indolence" prevented a declaration. He weds her, after mature consideration, when she is 60 years of age, and thus the truth of the old saying, "All things come to him that waits," is again corroborated.

MR. DAVITT has given the advocates of labor sensible advice. The great question in England to-day is Home Rule for Ireland, and when men as John Morley are engaged earnestly in the liberation of Ireland, it seems a pity that they should be nagged by questions of less importance. For the same reason, the factions in the Irish delegation need not vainly but criminal.

OUR "youngest congressman" is necessarily more than 25 years old, in accordance with the provisions of the constitution, but the British house of commons has members several years younger. One of the newly returned members, William Allen, is 21, and Frederick Smith and Mr. Dalziel are not yet 24. They do not break the record of political precocity, however, for William Pitt was only 17 when he made his maiden speech in the house—the speech that led Burke to say that the young orator "was not a chip of the old block, but the old block itself."

A Hang-dog Look.
First Tramp—When have you seen our old pal Jim Wayward?
Second Tramp—Saw him about a week ago.

"Don't say! How did he look?"
"Well, to tell the truth, he had an extremely hang-dog appearance."

Yes.
"You bet! You see, he was hurrying out of a farm-yard with a canine codicil to his trousers."—Yonkers Gazette.

Might Have Been One.
Uncle Abner, on a visit to New York—Glee-wh, nephew, I shouldn't think they'd allow them tramps to ride on a horse car.

His nephew "That man isn't a tramp, uncle. He is the conductor."

GENERAL BEAUBORD is now 75 years of age, but is quite spry and active and still maintains his old-time military bearing.

The sons of the Emperor of Germany will visit England shortly and will have to be very good boys while they are staying with their great-grandmother, the Queen, who likes children "to be seen, not heard."

The Postmaster at Ogden, Utah, is General Nathan Kimball whose friends claim that he was a hero and central figure of the battle of Winchester.

Now it is said that the protocol between France and Chili is likely to stir up a rumormongering in Chili and Peru. There should be law passed in South America prohibiting carrying the protocol in the state limits.

As an instance of the interest taken in cricket in England more than 31,000 people paid their way into Kennington Oval to see the recent match between the Surrey and Nottingham elevens.

PAPER manufacture is one of the chief industries in Korea. The paper is made in the most primitive manner from the bark of a tree which is indigenous to the country and which is closely allied to the mulberry.

The artists of Philadelphia are considering a plan to bring the studios into one neighborhood, with the view to the establishment of a Latin quarter such as Paris once had but has no longer.

J. E. Minko, who was the Assistant Treasurer for the Confederacy, has a neat little $500,000 bundle of Confederate notes laid away for the waste basket of the future.

The gentlemen who overhauled Messrs. Harrison and Cleveland the other day with the news of their nomination for president will themselves be electrified before long by receiving trustworthy information that the nominees have accepted.

VICTORIA'S maids of honor, who are paid $1,500 a year for their services, earn their salaries. They are obliged to appear before the queen in a new gown every day and to be in readiness to attend her majesty at any and every hour of the day.

MAYBE the reason that little Mars has double canals of great width where one would be an elegant sufficiency, lies in the fact that they have politics over there and put large numbers of floaters at work on public improvements about election time.

A SMALL island in Passamaquoddy bay is inhabited only by one man and his family. It is said that the man has several wives, and he is said to have a surprising number of children. They live by fishing and farming, and although the father and husband doesn't own the island he is king there.

Mrs. HETTY GREEN's father was a New Bedford man who accumulated $90,000,000 in the whale oil trade of that city. This fortune came down to Mrs. Green, who has now more than trebled it. There is a strong suspicion that it would take a strong team of oxen to haul the body back to that drowsy and oleaginous old city.

MONTANA is on the point of choosing a permanent capital. Helena and its rivals will probably indulge in an interesting contest for State House honors, but they will hardly equal Guthrie, Oklahoma City and Kingfisher, the three Oklahoma hamlets that fought a bloody fight for the Territorial capital two or three years ago.

It is said that the Duke of Devonshire, who has just been married to the Duchess of Manchester, was mainly in love with her 40 years ago, but his "habitué indolence" prevented a declaration. He weds her, after mature consideration, when she is 60 years of age, and thus the truth of the old saying, "All things come to him that waits," is again corroborated.

MR. DAVY has given the advocates of labor sensible advice. The great question in England to-day is Home Rule for Ireland, and when such men as John Morley are engaged earnestly in deliberation of Ireland, it seems a pity that they should be nagged by questions of less importance. For the same reason, the factions in the Irish delegation need not only vain but criminal.

OUR "youngest congressman" is necessarily more than 25 years old, in accordance with the provisions of the constitution, but the British house of commons has members several years younger. One of the several returned members, William Allen, is 21, and Frederick Smith and Mr. Dalziel are not yet 24. They do not break the record of political precocity, however, for William Pitt was only 18 when he made his maiden speech in the house—the speech that led Burke to say that the young orator "was not a chip of the old block, but the old block itself."

A Hang-dog Look.
First Tramp—When have you seen our old pal, Jim Wagoner?
Second Tramp—Saw him about a week ago.
"Don't say! How did he look?"
Well, to tell the truth, he had an extra hang-dog appearance.

"You bet! You see, he was hurrying out of a farm-yard gate with a cane, and I told his trousers."—Yonkers Gazette.

The last issue of consular reports contains thirty-three pages by Consul Frank D. Hill on his visit to the Philippines, the conditions and progress of Uruguay in 1901. Mr. Hill is a young man from Minnesota, who is making a good record in the United States foreign service. He is a native of the state and his report is full of interesting information about the South American republic of Uruguay.

Rev. Dr. John Van Nest Talmage, brother of Rev. Dr. W. D. Talmage, died in Bond Brook, Pa., recently. He was born in Somerset, Pa., Aug. 18, 1818, and graduated in Rutgers college in 1843, and at New Brunswick, N. J., seminary in 1845.

A widely known resident of Syracuse, "Prince" Charles A. Perkins, was found dead in his chair of heart disease. He was formerly secretary of the legislative assembly and had been in the city for many years.

J. E. Minko, who was the Assistant Treasurer for the Confederacy, has a neat little $500,000 bundle of Confederate notes laid away for the waste basket of the future.

The boys nodded to him pleasantly and went on with their work, and he moved unobtrusively from room to room, saying nothing to anyone until his eyes rested on a young man—a young man for whom he had no special liking anyway. He went over and shook hands with him.

"I find time passes mighty slow," he said.
"Yes," returned the young man slowly.
"Oh, yes. There's no one to chum with here. Nearly everyone else is working."

"Quite right," acquiesced the young man.
"I've got to go now, I'd sort of like to come up occasionally and bother the boys just for the fun of the thing, you know, but the boss won't let me."

"No, he gave warning when I started on my vacation that I wasn't to bother them."
"Indeed?"
"Yes, he said: 'Have all the fun you want, but don't disturb any of the boys who work here.'"

He put a pretty strong accent on the word "work," and with the conviction that his vacation had not been entirely wasted, he had settled a long standing grudge. The young man smiled and nodded, and then he went on his way.

In view of the rapid spread of cholera in Europe the custom house authorities of the United States have decided that no goods shall be landed from any European port until examination are made in each case, in order to be assured that they did not contain any cholera infected material, and that they were thoroughly fumigated in a manner prescribed by the department.

THE GRUDGE WAS SETTLED.
Even if the Man Used His Vacation for it.
He was on his vacation, but it seemed to be at a loss what to do to pass away the time, so he drifted back into the office "just to look around," as he put it.

The boys nodded to him pleasantly and went on with their work, and he moved unobtrusively from room to room, saying nothing to anyone until his eyes rested on a young man—a young man for whom he had no special liking anyway. He went over and shook hands with him.

"I find time passes mighty slow," he said.
"Yes," returned the young man slowly.
"Oh, yes. There's no one to chum with here. Nearly everyone else is working."

"Quite right," acquiesced the young man.
"I've got to go now, I'd sort of like to come up occasionally and bother the boys just for the fun of the thing, you know, but the boss won't let me."

"No, he gave warning when I started on my vacation that I wasn't to bother them."
"Indeed?"
"Yes, he said: 'Have all the fun you want, but don't disturb any of the boys who work here.'"

He put a pretty strong accent on the word "work," and with the conviction that his vacation had not been entirely wasted, he had settled a long standing grudge. The young man smiled and nodded, and then he went on his way.

The Harvest Moon is a strong attraction. The strong scenes aroused the audience and curtain calls were frequent. Miss Bial was excellent. Harry Booker did some clever comedy work, and the company is good.—Record, Philadelphia.

"Bill Workman comes down from Brainerd with a very large 'fish story' as some might call it. But 'Billey' is an old newspaper boy and when he says that Mrs. Wetzel, Miss Jeuch, Mat Wetzel and himself caught 115 fish we feel duty-bound to believe it, especially on a rainy day and when news is scarce.—Herald.

In "The Harvest Moon" we were treated to a dramatic feat, which was as unexpected as it was grand. The plot is deftly concealed, mystifying and interesting the audience from the beginning to the end of the play. It is a financial and artistic success, outranking anything seen here this season.—Cincinnati Commercial.

Two sons of George Russell, of Ft. Ripley, died of diphtheria Sunday, aged 3 and 6 years respectively. There are other cases of this disease in that vicinity, and George & Kimball was down this morning after Dr. Trace to attend one of his children, who was suffering from an attack of diphtheria.—Little Falls Transcript.

The Brainerd and Morris train narrowly averted an accident at a small bridge yesterday forenoon says the Little Falls Transcript. When nearing the bridge a cow was discovered on the track and instead of going to one side, ran straight ahead upon the bridge. Engineer Batlers reversed the engine and jumped, thinking that the train would be derailed. The cow's legs however dropped through between the ties and the heavy train pushed her lifeless body clear across the structure. It was a narrow escape.

The State Saengerbund.
Saturday and Sunday last were great days for the German element of this city, and the festivities were enjoyed by the citizens generally. The occasion was the biennial meeting of the organization above named. The visitors began arriving on Friday last, but the St. Paul contingent did not come until 5:30 Saturday evening and they were met by the Third Regt. Band and the committee from the Maennerchor. The visiting members and invited guests assembled at Gardner Hall at 9 p. m., where the banquet and saengerfest was to be held. Music was furnished for this occasion by the Norden Singing Club and the Third Regt. Band. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, who introduced Mayor Hagberg, and he addressed the meeting as follows:

Gentlemen of the Germania Maennerchor and visitors: It gives me great pleasure to welcome you, as individuals and as a society, to our city. I would be glad indeed if I had words at my command to more fittingly extend to you the hearty welcome of our citizens, which you so richly deserve, and which they so freely give. We are pleased to see you, and shall be happy to know that your short stay in our city has been a pleasant one to you. You will find our people generous entertainers. The city is yours. Take the keys and enjoy yourselves.

The speech was well received and a prolonged applause followed, after which H. C. Stivers delivered an address. The hall was well filled and there was not a vacant seat at either of the three banquet tables which extended across the spacious room. The Scandinavian and German singing societies each in turn sang songs in their native tongue and the evening was greatly enjoyed by all present. The banquet was served under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Johnson and was an elegant affair. The Sunday morning meeting was a business session at which it was decided to hold the next meeting in St. Paul.

On Sunday afternoon a line was formed on Laurel street and marched to Woodland Park to music furnished by the band and the afternoon was greatly enjoyed by those present, and it was estimated that over 2,000 people were on the grounds. In the evening a musical entertainment was enjoyed at the hall.

Altogether the meeting was a very pleasant one and the visitors spoke in the highest terms of the manner in which they were received while here. The Saengerbund committee on resolutions consisting of Joseph Dux, Max Wirth and Geo. W. Scherer, offered the following resolutions to the convention which were unanimously adopted and which we publish by request:

RESOLUTIONS.
WHEREAS, The Germania Maennerchor of Brainerd has accorded the members and delegates of the Minnesota Saengerbund a most royal welcome, and has extended to our organization the utmost hospitality, thereby showing their appreciation of German song and German fellowship, therefore
RESOLVED, That we express the heartiest thanks of the Association to the Brainerd Maennerchor, and trust that its prosperity may be ever on the increase.
RESOLVED, That the kindness of the citizens of Brainerd, who, through their Mayor, offered us the freedom of the city, we will ever hold in grateful remembrance, and we assure them that our stay in their beautiful city was both pleasant to those attending and beneficial to the Association, in showing that German song is finding a responsive chord in the hearts of the countrymen of our adopted home.

RESOLVED, That we also extend our heartfelt thanks to the Norden Society of Brainerd, who gave additional pleasure to the visitors by blending the songs of their native country with those of German origin, and we hope that the bond thus established may never be sundered.

John Williamson charged with disposing of mortgaged property had an examination and was discharged on Wednesday.

A Card of Thanks.
The Germania Maennerchor desires to extend their sincere thanks to all of our citizens who aided and participated in the reception and entertainment of the late visitors to our city during the Saengerfest. While refraining from mentioning names of generous donors or assistants, the same will be kept in grateful remembrance, we know that the visitors went away feeling that they had been well received and entertained and that the reputation which Brainerd has gained for hospitality has been sustained.

COMMITTEE.
DEER CURE HIGH.

Calvin Duff, a 17 year old son of John Duff, of Crow Wing township was arrested on Tuesday on complaint of Deputy Warden Paine charged with killing a deer. On Wednesday he appeared and plead not guilty and demanded a jury trial, and the case was put over until the next day at which time the jury was waived. The trial resulted in clearly proving that the young man shot the animal and the court imposed a fine of $50 and costs, or forty days in the county jail, and young Duff will have plenty of time to ponder over the affair as he was minus the funds with which to liquidate. This will probably be a warning to others.

"That 'Skipped by the light of the moon' is one of the most amusing of comedies, all who have ever seen it will surely attest. This famous piece which will set the town laughing next Tuesday night, is a roaring vaudeville abounding in bright and fresh repartee and laughable situations, and the company presenting it is the original Flower and Warrington Co., which is famous throughout the country for the excellence of its presentation. One might as well hope to photograph a laugh as to describe 'Skipped by the Light of the Moon' for it simply and sublimely defies analysis. Its sole object is to raise a breeze, and the breeze which has been raised by it has got quite beyond control and has grown to the magnitude of a cyclone. The most imperturbable nature goes down before it without a show of resistance and everybody rolls and shakes and laughs. As the bills say, it's funny; very, very funny.

Lionized the Wrong Englishman.
The Hotel Del Monte at Monterey, Cal., is stirred up over a ludicrous mistake by which a prosaic Englishman was lionized as Robert Buchanan, poet and dramatist. The Briton arrived at the hotel three days ago with two friends. He registered in a fine, literary hand, and as he bore a strong resemblance to the author several ladies present declared he must be the author of "The Shadow of the Sword." So several ladies desired him to write his autograph in their albums with some poetical sentiment. He received all their flattery complacently, but grinding out poetry for them kept him up all night and the result was something to shake confidence in their ideal.

The next day he was the center of an admiring group. His companions became suspicious and asked the hotel clerk why so much attention was paid their friend. They were amazed when they learned the true reason, because they declared their friend had never heard of Buchanan. They broke the news gently to him, but he could not resist a great shock. All three packed and left before disclosures came.—Cor. Chicago Herald.

These Have Gone.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Olson are called upon to mourn the loss of their son, Sigurd Ludwig, aged 11 years, which occurred on Tuesday from liver complaint after an illness of three weeks. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon from the family residence on Bluff avenue, Rev. Danielson, of the Norwegian-Lutheran church, officiating. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Mrs. Lewis Larson, of southeast Brainerd, died on Tuesday of rheumatism of the heart, the funeral occurring Thursday afternoon, Rev. J. R. Horvig officiating.

They Killed Chickens.
Yesterday it was legal to begin the slaughter of prairie chickens and an army of men, equipped with guns, dogs and ammunition, left this city long before sunrise in order to be ready for the fray as soon as the first streak of daylight should become visible. As is usually the case each party kept strictly mum as to the exact spot where they expected to do execution. The result did not show up last night as well as was expected and the report is that the birds are very scarce, so much so that the following score has been placed on ice for future reference:

O. C. Foster and M. L. Swartz, 1; Henry Spalding, A. F. Ferris and W. E. Seely, 10; J. Paine, Dnd. Wilkins, Sam Groer, A. H. Bennett and Fred Paine, 12; Louis Tache and party, 10; J. R. Smith, W. H. Mantor and Chas. Hazen, 21; Joe. Westfall and Jimmie Davis, 24; J. M. Hayes, Rev. J. A. Jenkins and party, 21, and Wm. Bredfeld and party, about 8.

Romantic Ft. Ripley Wedding.

This morning John W. Davis was married in the county jail to Miss Emma Steffins. The affair was very quiet, only about 15 persons being present, including Sheriff Houde and his niece, Mrs. Root. Davis was arrested ten days ago at the instance of Miss Steffins, charged with rape. The complaint was made that serious on account of the girl being under 16 years of age. A few days of enforced meditation and Davis came to the conclusion that the best thing he could do was to marry the girl, when it would be impossible for her to testify against him at the trial.

Miss Steffins and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Steffins, as soon as informed of Davis' desire in the matter, acquiesced. They arrived in town this morning from Ft. Ripley and went immediately to the jail. Before a marriage license could be issued it was necessary for the father and mother to give their consent, which they did. Locked up in his private cell Davis greeted his callers and soon-to-be bride. The services of Judge of Probate N. Richardson were called upon and the ceremony was soon over. Davis' bail was fixed at $500 which he had been unable to obtain. As soon as the marriage was over the party proceeded to Justice Fuller's office, the groom in charge of Sheriff Houde. In a very few minutes the bond was drawn and signed, and the party left for Fort Ripley. When the court convenes on Sept. 19, the charge against Davis will probably be nulled, as in this state a wife cannot give evidence against her husband, and in this case Mrs. Davis is the only witness for the prosecution.—Little Falls Transcript.

A series of interesting experiments was conducted the other night at Stanford Bridge Grounds, London, with balloons and apparatus invented and improved by Mr. Eric Bruce for use in military signaling at night over intervening woods and hills. Within the balloons are hung on a small swinging ladder six incandescent lamps, connected by insulated cable with a battery on the ground, worked that night at twenty-four volt, and giving sixty candle power of illumination. By ready manipulation of the buttons at the instrument the operator flashes on the translucent sides of the balloons the signals of the Morse or any code, and these can be easily read at a distance of six miles. The balloon used was a small one of eighteen feet diameter, containing 1,000 feet of gas, and was held by cable at a height of about 300 feet. The strong wind prevailing rendered the position of the balloon unsteady and uncertain, but the signals were nevertheless read by military experts, and were answered from a station on land. The experiments were witnessed by Prince Edward of Saxo-Weimar, by military attaches of the Chinese and other embassies at a number of scientific men. The experiments were varied by hanging the lamps outside below the neck of the balloon and flashing direct. The illuminated balloon when a few feet above the ground, gave a beautiful light, and can be utilized when required for executing work at night.—London News.

Tickets are limited to return until Sept. 12. They are good going one day after date of sale, and for continuous passage from date, stamped at destination returning, but not later than Sept. 12 in any case.

The city schools will open on Monday morning.

A First Class Attraction.

The engagement of Margaret Mather at the Sleeper Opera House in this city Thursday evening, Sept. 8, in her character of Pauline, in Bulwer-Lytton's five act romantic play, "The Lady of Lyons," promises to be one of the most important events of the entire season. Miss Mather's well known abilities, her reputation for artistic work,—a reputation that is known from one end of the country to the other,—both assure the public that whatever she gives will be well given. As the crossed and unhappy Pauline Miss Mather has a role that not only lays entirely within her power but one in which she is said to be most eminently successful. Her company too, is very highly spoken of, Mr. Cantley, the English leading man, being much admired in his work as the luckless Claude Melnotte. The balance of the company are all fully equal to the roles assigned and she should be given a good house by the people of Brainerd. The prominence of the play, its healthful and interesting theme, the high class literary ability of the author and Miss Mather's well known powers should combine to make her coming an event that will be greeted by a large house. She is perhaps the best known of America's tragic and romantic stars and it is said that her work this year is far and away beyond anything she has ever done in the past. The assertion is also made that her company is the best she has ever had. The engagement is for a single night only, the tickets being placed on sale at Cable's drug store.

A PETITION

To the Proprietors and Managers of the Business Houses of the City of Brainerd.

GENTLEMEN: Whereas, There is a growing tendency on the part of the trading public in Minneapolis, St. Paul and other cities to do their shopping through the hours of the day, partly for their own convenience as well as because the daylight enables them to better judge of the quality of goods, etc., and also because of a kindly consideration for the comfort and convenience of the employees in places of business; and further that employers themselves, elsewhere, are more generally adopting the custom of early closing of their business houses; and Whereas, Considering also the growing commercial interests of Brainerd, the number of its inhabitants, and the manifest improvement in so many directions, our city should keep pace with others of like importance in the state in the matter of shortening business hours, to afford business men, their clerks and other employees the needed rest, and more time for self-improvement, as well as home comforts.

Therefore, We, the undersigned salesmen, book-keepers and other employees in this city, do, in view of the foregoing and other considerations, hereby respectfully and earnestly petition our several employers to close their various places of business at 6:30 o'clock p. m. on every night in the week except Saturday and the pay days at the saw mills, believing that if this petition is favorably considered and our request kindly granted, it will not in the least diminish the volume of business in the city, but will be in some directions a decided advantage to business so to do; and your petitioners, the undersigned, will greatly appreciate the favor conferred.

We petition further that the time for the change of closing hours, as stated above, be Oct. 1, 1892.

Local News Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parker returned from their eastern trip on Monday.

John Wisner, a plain drunk, was fined $7.40 in the municipal court this morning.

The new model Winchester, 1892, can now be seen at C. B. White's gun store, Laurel street.

F. H. Wakefield, advance agent for Margaret Mather, was a pleasant caller at this office yesterday.

The W. C. T. U. will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. parlor. All are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Shaner and children, of Duluth, visited Prof. J. A. Wilson and family the first of the week.

L. B. McEwen has resigned his position with the Northern Mill Co. to take place Sept. 20th. Mr. Robert Stitts succeeds him.

A heavy frost was visible early Wednesday morning but the damage was slight on account of a dense fog which prevailed.

The high school bell is now rung for church services, for the benefit of the churches in that part of the city which are not supplied with bells.

Miss Mary Wilson, sister of Prof. J. A. Wilson, arrived here from Sacramento, Cal., on Friday evening, and will make her home here in the future.

Miss Jennie and Lillie Paine returned on Tuesday from Correctionville, Iowa, where they had been visiting relatives for several weeks past.

John Buber is having a wind mill erected in the rear of his hotel, with which he expects to supply the place with water from a drive well which was put down ninety feet.

A concert is in preparation by the ladies of the First Congregational church to be given in the near future. A rare treat is in store for the citizens of Brainerd. Watch for particulars later.

Mrs. C. M. Patek and children, Mrs. H. I. Cohen, Mrs. Crane and children, Miss Fitch and Mr. and Mrs. Chedele are occupying Mrs. J. N. Nevers' cottage at Long Lake this week.

Cullen & Quinn have received the balance of their saloon furniture and had it placed in position and their place now presents a very handsome appearance and is probably one of the finest sample rooms in the northwest.

John Guyott was arrested and brought before the municipal court this morning on charge of drunkenness under the Scheffer law and fined $25, or thirty days in the county jail. The complaint was made by his wife.

The Harvest Moon is a strong attraction. The strong scenes around the audience and curtain calls were frequent. Miss Rial was excellent. Harry Booker did some clever comedy work, and the company is good.—Record, Philadelphia.

"Bill Workman comes down from Brainerd with a very large 'fish story' as some might call it. But 'Billy' is an old newspaper boy and when he says that Mrs. Wetzel, Miss Jueck, Mat Wetzel and himself caught 115 fish we feel duty-bound to believe it, especially on a rainy day and when news is scarce.—Herald.

In "The Harvest Moon" we were treated to a dramatic feat, which was as unexpected as it was grand. The plot is deftly conceived, mystifying and interesting the audience from the beginning to the end of the play. It is a financial and artistic success, outstriking anything seen here this season.—Cincinnati Commercial.

Two sons of George Russell, of Ft. Riley, died of diphtheria Sunday, aged 3 and 6 years respectively. There are other cases of this disease in that vicinity, and George & Kimball was down this morning after Dr. Trace to attend one of his children, who was suffering from an attack of diphtheria.—Little Falls Transcript.

The Brainerd and Morris train narrowly averted an accident at a small bridge yesterday forenoon says the Little Falls Transcript. When nearing the bridge a cow was discovered on the track and instead of going to one side, ran straight ahead upon the bridge. Engineer Batlers reversed the engine and jumped, thinking that the train would be derailed. The cow's legs however dropped through between the ties and the heavy train pushed her lifeless body clear across the structure. It was a narrow escape.

On or about June 20th, one mule steer with white star in forehead, one red steer with horns turned in, nearly all red and white hair mixed. Will give any one $10 reward for information leading to their recovery.

The State Saengerbund.

Saturday and Sunday last were great days for the German element of this city, and the festivities were enjoyed by the citizens generally. The occasion was the biennial meeting of the organization above named. The visitors began arriving on Friday last, but the St. Paul contingent did not come until 5:30 Saturday evening and they were met by the Third Regt. Band and the committee from the Maennerchor. The visiting members and invited guests assembled at Gardner Hall at 9 p. m., where the banquet and saengerfest was to be held. Music was furnished for this occasion by the Norden Singing Club and the Third Regt. Band. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, who introduced Mayor Hagberg, and he addressed the meeting as follows:

Gentlemen of the Germania Maennerchor, and visitors, it gives me great pleasure to welcome you, as individuals and as a society, to our city. I would be glad indeed if I had words at my command to more fittingly extend to you the hearty welcome of our citizens, which you so richly deserve, and which they so freely give. We are pleased to see you, and shall be happy to know that your short stay in our city has been a pleasant one to you. You will find our people generous entertainers. The city is yours. Take the keys and enjoy yourselves.

The speech was well received and a prolonged applause followed, after which H. C. Stivers delivered an address. The hall was well filled and there was not a vacant seat at either of the three banquet tables which extended across the spacious room. The Scandinavian and German singing societies each in turn sang songs in their native tongue and the evening was greatly enjoyed by all present. The banquet was served under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Johnson and was an elegant affair.

The Sunday morning meeting was a business session at which it was decided to hold the next meeting in St. Paul.

On Sunday afternoon a line was formed on Laurel street and marched to Woodland Park to music furnished by the band and the afternoon was greatly enjoyed by those present, and it was estimated that over 2,000 people were on the grounds. In the evening a musical entertainment was enjoyed at the hall.

Altogether the meeting was a very pleasant one and the visitors spoke in the highest terms of the manner in which they were received while here.

The Saengerbund committee on resolutions consisting of Joseph Dux, Max Wirth and Geo. W. Scherer, offered the following resolutions to the convention which were unanimously adopted and which we publish by request:

RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, The Germania Maennerchor of Brainerd has accorded the members and delegates of the Minnesota Saengerbund a most royal welcome, and has extended to our organization the utmost hospitality, thereby showing their appreciation of German song and German fellowship, therefore

RESOLVED, That we express our heartfelt thanks to the Association to the Brainerd Maennerchor, and trust that its prosperity may be ever on the increase.

RESOLVED, That the kindness of the citizens of Brainerd, who, through their Mayor, offered us the freedom of the city, we ever hold in grateful remembrance, and we assure them that our stay in their beautiful city was both pleasant to those attending and beneficial to the Association, in showing that German song is finding a responsive chord in the hearts of the citizens of our adopted home.

RESOLVED, That we also extend our heartfelt thanks to the Norden Society of Brainerd, who gave additional pleasure to the visitors by blending the songs of their native country with those of German origin, and hope that the bond thus established may never be sundered.

John Williamson charged with disposing of mortgaged property had an examination and was discharged on Wednesday.

A Card of Thanks.

The Germania Maennerchor desires to extend their sincere thanks to all of our citizens who aided and participated in the reception and entertainment of the visitors to our city during the Saengerfest. While refraining from mentioning names of generous donors or assistants, the same will be kept in grateful remembrance, we know that the visitors went away feeling that they had been well received and entertained and that the reputation which Brainerd has gained for hospitality has been sustained.

COMMITTEE.

Dear Com High.

Calvin Duff, a 17 year old son of John Duff, of Crow Wing township was arrested on Tuesday on complaint of Deputy Warden Paine charged with killing a deer. On Wednesday he appeared and plead not guilty and demanded a jury trial, and the case was put over until the next day at which time the jury was waived. The trial resulted in clearly proving that the young man shot the animal and the court imposed a fine of $50 and costs, or forty days in the county jail, and young Duff will have plenty of time to ponder over the affair as he was minus the funds with which to liquidate. This will probably be a warning to others.

"That 'Skipped by the light of the moon' is one of the most amusing of comedies, all who have ever seen it will surely attest. This famous piece which will set the town laughing next Tuesday night, is a roaring vaudeville abounding in bright and fresh repartee and laughable situations, and the company presenting it is the original Flower and Warrington Co., which is famous throughout the country for the excellence of its presentation.

One might as well hope to photograph a laugh as to describe 'Skipped by the light of the moon' for it simply and sublimely defies analysis. Its sole object is to raise a breeze, and the breeze which has been raised by it has got quite beyond control and has grown to the magnitude of a cyclone. The most imperturbable nature goes down before it without a show of resistance and everybody rolls and shakes and laughs. As the bills say, it's funny, very, very funny.

These Have Gone.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Olson are called upon to mourn the loss of their son, Sigurd Ludvig, aged 11 years, which occurred on Tuesday from liver complaint after an illness of three weeks. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon from the family residence on Bluff avenue, Rev. Danielson, of the Norwegian-Lutheran church, officiating. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Mrs. Lewis Larson, of southeast Brainerd, died on Tuesday of rheumatism of the heart, the funeral occurring Thursday afternoon, Rev. J. R. Rorvig officiating.

They Killed Chickens.

Yesterday it was legal to begin the slaughter of prairie chickens with guns, dogs and ammunition, left this city long before sunrise in order to be ready for the fray as soon as the first streak of daylight should become visible. As is usually the case each party kept strictly mum as to the exact spot where they expected to do execution. The result did not show up last night as well as was expected and the report is that the birds are very scarce, so much so that the following score has been placed on ice for future reference:

O. C. Foster and M. L. Swartz, 1; Henry Spalding, A. F. Ferris and W. E. Seelye, 10; J. Paine, Dud. Wilkins, Sam Greer, A. H. Bennett and Fred Paine, 12; Louis Tache and party, 16; J. R. Smith, W. H. Mantor and Chas. Hazen, 21; Joe. Westfall and Jimmie Davis, 24; J. M. Hayes, Rev. J. A. Jenkins and party, 21, and Wm. Bredfeld and party, about 8.

Romantic Ft. Ripley Wedding.

This morning John W. Davis was married in the county jail to Miss Emma Steffins. The affair was very quiet, only about 15 persons being present, including Sheriff Houde and his niece, Mrs. Root. Davis was arrested ten days ago at the instance of Miss Steffins, charged with rape. The complaint was made that serious on account of the girl being under 16 years of age. A few days of enforced meditation and Davis came to the conclusion that the best thing he could do was to marry the girl, when it would be impossible for her to testify against him at the trial.

Miss Steffins and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Steffins, as soon as informed of Davis' desire in the matter, acquiesced. They arrived in town this morning from Ft. Ripley and went immediately to the jail. Before a marriage license could be issued it was necessary for the father and mother to give their consent, which they did. Locked up in his private cell Davis greeted his callers and soon-to-be bride. The services of Judge of Probate N. Richardson were called upon and the ceremony was soon over. Davis' bail was fixed at $500 which he had been unable to obtain. As soon as the marriage was over the party proceeded to Justice Fuller's office, the groom in charge of Sheriff Houde. In a very few minutes the bond was drawn and signed, and the party left for Fort Ripley. When the court convenes on Sept. 19, the charge against Davis will probably be nolle, as in this state a wife cannot give evidence against her husband, and in this case Mrs. Davis is the only witness for the prosecution.—Little Falls Transcript.

Rates for the State Fair.

Special excursion tickets to St. Paul or Minneapolis and return will be on sale by the Northern Pacific railroad from Sept. 5th to 10th inclusive, at one St. Paul fare for round trip, plus fifty cents for admission coupon to Fair grounds. Tickets are limited to return until Sept. 12. They are good going one day after date of sale, and for continuous passage from date, stamped at destination returning, but not later than Sept. 12 in any case.

The city schools will open on Monday morning.

Signaling by Balloon.

A series of interesting experiments was conducted the other night at Stanford Bridge Grounds, London, with balloon and apparatus invented and improved by Mr. Eric Bruce for use in military signaling at night over intervening woods and high water. The balloons are hung on a small swinging ladder six incandescent lamps, connected by insulated cable with a battery on the ground, worked that night at twenty-four volts and giving sixty candle power of illumination. By ready manipulation of the buttons at the instrument the operator flashes on the translucent sides of the balloons the signals of the Morse or any code, and these can be easily read at a distance of six miles.

The balloon used was a small one of eighteen feet diameter, containing 1,000 feet of gas, and a held by cable at a height of about 300 feet. The strong wind prevailing rendered the position of the balloon unsteady and uncertain, but the signals were nevertheless read by military experts, and were answered and given sixty candle power of illumination. By ready manipulation of the buttons at the instrument the operator flashes on the translucent sides of the balloons the signals of the Morse or any code, and these can be easily read at a distance of six miles.

Lionized the Wrong Englishman.

The Hotel Del Monte at Monterey, Cal., is stirred up over a ludicrous mistake by a group of scientific men, who were lionized as Robert Buchanan, poet and dramatist.

The Briton arrived at the hotel three days ago with two friends. He registered in a fine, literary hand, and as he bore a strong resemblance to the author several ladies present declared he must be the author of "The Shadow of the Sword." So several ladies desired him to write his autograph in their albums with some poetical sentiment. He received all their flattery complacently, but grinding out poetry for them kept him up all night and the result was something to shake confidence in their ideal.

The next day he was the center of an admiring group. His companions became suspicious and asked the hotel clerk why so much attention was paid their friend. They were amazed when they learned the true reason, because they declared their friend had never heard of Buchanan. They broke the news gently to him, but his conceit received a great shock. All three packed and left before disclosures came.—Cor. Chicago Herald.

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

A First Class Attraction.

The engagement of Margaret Mather at the Sleeper Opera House in this city Thursday evening, Sept. 8, in her character of Pauline, in Bulwer-Lytton's five act romantic play, "The Lady of Lyons," promises to be one of the most important events of the entire season. Miss Mather's well known abilities, her reputation for artistic work—a reputation that is known from one end of the country to the other,—both assure the public that whatever she gives will be well given. As the crossed and unhappy Pauline Miss Mather has a role that not only lays entirely within her power but one in which she is said to be most eminently successful. Her company too, is very highly spoken of, Mr. Cantley, the English leading man, being much admired in his work as the luckless Claude Melnotte. The balance of the company are all fully equal to the roles assigned and she should be given a good house by the people of Brainerd. The prominence of the play, its healthful and interesting theme, the high class literary ability of the author and Miss Mather's well known powers should combine to make her coming an event that will be greeted by a large house. She is perhaps the best known of America's tragic and romantic stars and it is said that her work this year is far and away beyond anything she has ever done in the past. The assertion is also made that her company is the best she has ever had. The engagement is for a single night only, the tickets being placed on sale at Cable's drug store.

John Bubar is having a wind mill erected in the rear of his hotel, with which he expects to supply the place with water from a drive well which was put down ninety feet.

A concert is in preparation by the ladies of the First Congregational church to be given in the near future.

A rare treat is in store for the citizens of Brainerd. Watch for particulars later.

Mrs. O. M. Patek and children,

Mrs. H. I. Cohen, Mrs. Crane and children, Miss Fitch and Mr. and Mrs. Chedde are occupying Mrs. J.

N. Nevors' cottage at Long Lake this week.

Cullen & Quinn have received the balance of their saloon furniture and had it placed in position and their place now presents a very handsome appearance and is probably one of the finest sample rooms in the northwest.

John Guyott was arrested and brought before the municipal court this morning on charge of drunkenness under the Scheffer law and fined $25, or thirty days in the county jail.

The complaint was made by his wife.

The Harvest Moon is a strong attraction. The strong scenes aroused the audience and certain calls were frequent. Miss Rial was excellent

Harry Booker did some clever comedy work, and the company is good.—Record,

Philadelphia.

"Bill Workman comes down from Brainerd with a very large 'fish story' as some might call it. But 'Bilby' is an old newspaper boy and when he says that Mrs. Wetzel, Miss Jenck,

Mat Wetzel and himself caught 115

fish we feel duty-bound to believe it—especially on a rainy day and when news is scarce.—Herald.

In 'The Harvest Moon' we were treated to a dramatic feat, which was as unexpected as it was grand. The plot is deftly concealed, mistifying and interesting the audience from the beginning to the end of the play. It is a financial and artistic success, out-trunking anything seen here this season.—Cincinnati Commercial.

Two sons of George Russell, of Ft.

Ripley, died of diphtheria Sunday, aged 3 and 6 years respectively. There are other cases of this disease in that vicinity, and George Kimball was down this morning after Dr.

Trace to attend one of his children, who was suffering from an attack of diphtheria.—Little Falls Transcript.

The Brainerd and Morris train narrowly averted an accident at a small bridge between Sauk Center and Morris yesterday forenoon says the Little Falls Transcript. When nearing the bridge a cow was discovered on the track and instead of going to one side, ran straight ahead upon the bridge.

Engineer Batters reversed the engine and jumped, thinking that the train would be derailed. The cow's legs however dropped through between the ties and the heavy train pushed her lifeless body clear across the structure. It was a narrow escape.
